

DR. McIVER SPEAKS AT WINSTON

TWO OPEN FIELDS IN THE SOUTH
HIS SUBJECT.

Makes No Apology for Asking People Who Are Able to Give of Their Means to the Cause of Education.—In North Carolina There are 40,000 More Illiterate Women Than Men and 20,000 of These Are White Women.

The Educational Conference at Winston-Salem is attracting wide-spread interest. Many prominent educators of the South are there as well as the party from the North. The Conference ends tonight. Dr. McIver spoke, a synopsis of his speech being herewith given, taken from a special to the Charlotte Observer:

Dr. McIver spoke on "Two Open Fields in the South for Investment." He said that what he had to say would be the same if not a Northern man or woman were in a thousand miles of Winston-Salem. "The one reason why our schools are not doing more work and better work in the way of education is for lack of money.

"I make no apology for asking people who are able to give of their means to the cause of education. Your bankers and cotton mill men do not hesitate to take the train from New York or Philadelphia to secure funds to start their business and I know I have the cause of education more at heart than even they have their banks or their factories.

"The first step in industrial education is to learn to read. Whatever this conference shall do it must look first to the abolition of illiteracy. Next the training of teachers who are the seed corn of education and none but the best should be used. The great question then is who shall teach these children. A higher standard of proficiency in the teacher is important and this standard cannot be attained without better pay. It must be recognized that education is expensive and that illiteracy costs more than education.

"It is difficult to get an agricultural people to realize that ideas are worth more than acres; that the man if ideas is able to hold a mortgage on half the acres of every community. In Massachusetts 1,500 ideas make a patent and in North Carolina it takes 24,000.

"In proportion to our financial ability we of the South are doing so much for education as you in the North." The speaker here referred to the splendid management of the Peabody fund by Dr. Curry and said he would not advise the giving of money without a condition that at least an equal amount be raised by the community assisted. Money invested in the education of a woman yielded more educationally than that invested in the education of a man. The children of educated women were never illiterate, whether they went to school or not.

"In North Carolina there are 40,000 more illiterate women than men and 20,000 of these are white women. The tendency of legislation for educational qualifications for the franchise will still more have the effect of discouraging the education of women in the South. There is but one properly endowed woman's college in the South. It would be as well almost to have an educational qualification for matrimony. Now, if the women teachers of the South, without endowment are doing as much as those of the rich endowed colleges for men at the North are doing it is time you philanthropists were turning your attention to this fruitful field for education in the South and at least divide your gifts of millions in endowments to colleges and universities whose coffers are overflowing with gold." The speaker made a strong plea for the education of the women.

In conclusion he said the public schools and colleges for women were the two best fields for investment of money in the South today. For 40 years we have been in the wilderness of poverty and have at last taken standsthat have astonished the natives. The Moses of education in the South for our public institutions has been Dr. Curry, the wise and faithful agent of the Peabody fund.

DR. RUSSELL'S ADDRESS.

Dr. James E. Russell, dean of Columbia University, N. Y., next addressed the conference on "The Social Problem in Elementary Education." He said that he could show common schools in an hour's ride of the city of New York that were not as good as those spoken of by speakers from the South in this conference. There are plenty of country schools in New York where the teacher gets about $15 a month and pays about that amount for board. "Our people pay all the taxes they intend to pay, without better results. I state these facts to comfort you Southern people, who seem to think you are alone with this most serious problem of common school education."

The speaker then read a most erudite and classic essay on the value of training the moral and intellectual faculties. He strongly urged a more rigid discipline, educating thereby pupils into a habit of obedience and continued persistent individual effort. "Our pupils ought to be taught to do honest work for the sake of an honest man's reward."

GEN. TOON'S SPEECH.

Gen. T. F. Toon, superintendent of Public Instruction in North Carolina, began his address by saying he was glad to hear there was a public school in the State of New York, with which a North Carolina country school could favorably compare. General Toon said in attempting to make a speech to such an audience he was not scared a bit but he lacked a great deal from feeling comfortable. "My first recollection of an educational address was that it had laudanum enough in it to stupefy this entire assemblage. Let us not call this educational trouble a problem. Let's call it something else. The big part of it is work. We need money, it is true, but work is the great question.

"You ask what are we doing? Well, we are taxing one race very largely to educate two races, giving to both the same money per capita. We are spending millions of dollars to help educate. We are spending $14,000 a year alone for normal schools for negro teachers. We need encouragement and the coming of you friends here from the North to know us better and to find out, for noble purposes, the exact condition of affairs is most encouraging to us."

Mr. J. S. Manning, of Durham spent last night in the city.

Prof. J. Y. Joyner returned last night from Raleigh and will spend Sunday in the city.

The Colonial Monument, in sixteen pieces, is now on the siding at the Battle Ground.

Rev. P. J. Carraway went to Walkertown this afternoon to fill his appointment there Sunday.

Mr. P. G. Welsh returned this morning from a business trip in the eastern part of the State.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Guthrie, of Raleigh, formerly residents of this city, spent last night here.

Rev. E. E. Gillespie went to Burlington this afternoon and will preach there tomorrow.

The Aldermen met last night in an adjourned meeting but only routine work was attended to.

Mr. Josephus Daniels, of the News and Observer, Raleigh, was in the city this morning returning home from Winston.

Mr. T. G. Frasier left this afternoon for Gulf, called there by a message announcing the serious illness of his mother. It is feared she has pneumonia.

BIG STORM RAGING.

Business Suspended in Sections of New York State.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Buffalo, April 20.—Today's severe snow storm makes the opening of the exposition May the first exceedingly doubtful. It will take perhaps a week to get the grounds in a presentable condition.

Carnegie Under Water.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Pittsburg, April 20.—Pittsburg, and Carnegie near here are threatened by flood. Carnegie is already under three feet of water, and the residents are panic stricken and rushing to places of safety. Reports from other places indicate considerable peril. Trains have been caught in many places by the flood. Women passengers endured a terrible ordeal, and the people are prepared for the worst flood since that of Johnstown.

Rush of Stock Exchange.

By Wire to The Telegram.

New York, April 20.—The wildest rush yet occurred on the stock exchange this morning. Three hundred thousand shares were sold in ten minutes. Blocks of a thousand and fifteen thousand shares were nothing unusual in the long list of sales on the rising scale of prices. The brokers' offices were crowded with speculators eager to buy. London also was an extremely large purchaser.

THE A. AND M. COLLEGE.

the general funds of the college. As these industries develop they become larger and more important tributaries to the college and help to bring it nearer to an independent basis. The dairy for example with a small herd of fifteen cows has earned during the last five months a net profit of $80 per month. Under the excellent management of Prof. John Thompson, who has immediate charge of the dairy, President Dudley is constantly seeking to enlarge this industry and thereby increase its contribution to the college funds. At the same time the President is vigorously pushing the establishment of profitable industries in the Mechanical department. Under Prof. Orlo Epps the canning industry has been installed and arrangements have been made for a profitable disposal of the entire output. This and the brick yard, both of which are controlled by the mechanical department, will soon be yielding a revenue to the college, and at the same time will be furnishing the students with much needed aid and valuable practical experience.

These efforts by no means monopolize the attention of the teachers and students. This is the side for manual labor. On the other hand these students find excellent opportunities in the Preparatory department under Prof. J. S. Williams and in the English department under Prof. C. H. Moore to secure a good English education. With such training it would be difficult for a student to go through the course and leave the school other than a good workman and a good citizen. Character, industry and intelligence are the trinity of graces which the college is impressing upon its students. The general department of these students receives especial praise by the citizens of Greensboro, who give preference during the summer months to the employment of A. and M. students because of their courtesy and general good behavior. Thus the Agricultural and Mechanical College is giving back the returns for the expenses it incurs in the shape of good peaceful citizens, intelligent laborers, skilled workmen and active thinkers, who will do their part in developing the rich and varied resources of the Old North State.

Death from Druggist's Mistake.

Northport, N. Y., April 20.—Mrs. Vienna McCann died at noon as the result of a mistake by a local druggist in compounding a prescription.

White Man Caught Stealing.

A white man was caught stealing from the Odell Hardware Company yesterday afternoon late, and was followed by a clerk for some distance, and upon being taxed with the theft the man frankly acknowledged that he did steal the articles. He readily returned with his captor to the store and was there given a talking to by the members of the firm. The man said that he had never stolen a thing before in his life and that he would not have done so this time but he was under the influence of liquor.

After giving assurances that he would commit no more crime he was released and returned to his home.

The articles stolen were a quantity of leather and a hoe. As the man may reform and be guilty of no crime in the future, his name is here withheld.

A Landslide.

By Wire to The Telegram.

Pittsburg, April 20.—A landslide beyond Soko this morning carried two houses down on the Baltimore and Ohio tracks. Michael Cull and his wife were thrown from their beds but escaped severe injuries. The railroad track was covered with wreckage. The entire hill is slipping and there is fear that it will go down.

The Southern Import and Commission Company, of this city, recently made a shipment of one thousand rolls of carpets and matting to Georgia. This firm does a wholesale business exclusively.

Justice of the Peace J. A. Pritchett is by no means a bore, but he is getting to be a great tire. Yesterday afternoon he tied the knot that made one Mr. William M. Steel and Miss Mamie Thorton, both of this county.

Evangelist T. C. Hodgkin will preach tomorrow at 2:30 in the Brockmann Music School building, also at 7:45 in the evening.

Mr. Charles Porter, of Washington City, arrived this morning and will spend Sunday in the city visiting his parents on Cedar street.

Lucy Davis, colored, was released from jail today by the county commissioners. She was serving a term for running a gambling house.

The broken pump on South Elm street near Hudson's store has been remedied and the people are now able to slake their thirst. The expense of the work was borne by the business firms in the vicinity.

Give Us Mr. Wright.

To the Editor of The Telegram:

There was never a time in the history of Greensboro when the city stood so much in need of a broad-gauged, liberal minded and progressive man to fill the office of mayor as at the present. Every citizen who has the good of the city at heart must realize that only such a man can keep Greensboro in the fore front of progress. There is much to be done; many improvements to be inaugurated. Without disparaging the qualifications of either of the other gentlemen whose names have been mentioned in connection with the office, we wish to say that Mr. C. G. Wright is pre-eminently qualified for the duties of the position and is the man the city needs at this time. He has always stood for everything that had a tendency to upbuild and improve the city and has spent both time and money for the common good of us all. Give us Mr. Wright.

AFTER THE GOLD BRICK MEN

A SOUTH CAROLINA SHERIFF WANTS TO FINGER THEM.

He is in Raleigh Asking Governor Aycock for a Requisition for the Alleged Robbers of Old Man Wheeler—The Case Not Effectuated.

The News and Observer this morning says:

"Hon. O. L. Shumpert, of Newberry, S. C., a prominent attorney of that State, is in the city. He has with him a requisition upon Governor Aycock from Governor McSweeney, of South Carolina, for the three 'gold brick' swindlers, lately arrested in Greensboro. The men are wanted in South Carolina for working the 'gold brick' game upon a wealthy citizen of Newberry, Mr. David Henry Wheeler, from whom they obtained $7,000. Mr. Shumpert will wait here to see Gov. Aycock, who is in Winston-Salem, at the Educational Conference and will urge that the men be returned to South Carolina, as they committed three overt acts there and are only wanted in North Carolina for an attempt. If convicted in South Carolina the imprisonment will be from two to thirty years."

This effort will not at all effect the case, any more than that of the sheriff from Iowa did. The men are to be held to answer the charge here first. The 'old miner's' wife is still here, boarding at the Guilford. She has been visiting the jail several times a day. Yesterday Deputy Sheriff Jones told her that as each visit was very troublesome to the officers she would have to make fewer of them. This aroused her indignation and she told the deputy that she would appeal to the Governor and publish him besides. Mr. Jones said the Governor might be running the State, but he was not looking after the Guilford county jail now, and as for the publishing, he would likely grow fat on that.

Officers Jeffreys and Jordan this afternoon took "Doctor" Watson, colored, in out of the weather. The doctor was "drunk and a raisin' cain."

According to the last census there are within a radius of sixty miles of Greensboro, not including territory lying in Virginia, 484,000 people.

Governor Aycock Here.

Several State officials took breakfast at the Humes in this city this morning, returning to Raleigh from attending the Educational Conference at Winston. Among the party were Governor Charles B. Aycock, Dr. R. H. Lewis, of the State Board of Health, Auditor B. F. Dixon, Superintendent of Public Instruction, Thomas F. Toon, Prof. J. L. Kesler, of the Baptist Female University and President George T. Winston, of the Agricultural and Mechanical College.

The "Tis He" Company arrived at noon from the east and are stopping at the McAdoo. They appear at the Academy of Music tonight.

Dr. L. W. Crawford returned from Winston last night where he has been attending the Educational Conference and will hold services at Spring Garden tomorrow.

The Union Company proposes to build four sixty press linseed oil mills at Chicago, Buffalo, Minneapolis, and New York.

A revival will be begun in the Southside Baptist church tomorrow night, by Rev. C. A. G. Thomas. Services will be held every day at 3 o'clock and at 8 o'clock. A cordial invitation is extended.

AGUINALDO COUNSELS PEACE

HE HEADS THE VOICE OF HIS PEOPLE CALLING FOR IT.

There Has Been Enough Blood Shed, Enough Tears and Enough Desolation—His People Long for Peace—They Want to Enjoy the Liberty and the Promised Generosity of the Great American Nation—The Majority of His People Already United Around the Glorious Sovereign Banner of the United States.

Manila, April 19.—The following is Aguinaldo's address to the Filipino people, made public this evening: "I believe I am not in error in presuming that the unhappy fate to which my adverse fortune has led me is not a surprise to those who have been familiar with the progress of the war. The lesson taught with a full meaning and which have recently come to my knowledge suggest with irresistible force, that a complete termination of hostilities and lasting peace are not only desirable, but absolutely essential to the welfare of the Philippine Islands. The Filipinos have never been dismayed at their weakness nor have they faltered in following the path pointed out by their fortitude and courage. The time has come, however, in which they find their advance along this path to be impeded by an irresistible force which, while it restrains them, yet enlightens their minds and opens to them another course, presenting to them the cause of peace. This cause has been joyfully embraced by the majority of my fellow-countrymen, who have already united around the glorious, sovereign banner of the United States. In this banner they repose their trust and belief that under its protection the Filipino people will attain all these promised liberties which they are beginning to enjoy. The country has declared unmis- takably in favor of peace. So be it. There has been enough blood, enough tears and enough desolation. This wish cannot be ignored by the men still in arms, if they are animated by a desire to serve our noble people which has thus clearly manifested its will. So do I respect this will, now that it is known to me.

"After mature deliberation, I resolutely proclaim to the world that I cannot refuse to heed the voice of a people longing for peace, nor the lamentations of thousands of families yearning to see their dear ones enjoying the liberty and the promised generosity of the great American Nation. By acknowledging and accepting the sovereignty of the United States throughout the Philippine archipelago, as I now do, and without any reservation whatsoever, I believe that I am serving thee, my beloved country. May happiness be thine."

WINE OF CARDUI

Woman's Crowning Virtue.

BELTON, Mo., July 27.
For years I suffered terrible pains every month and my doctor told me I could not be cured except by an operation. I felt I could not submit to that and was so despondent I had given up all hopes of a cure. My husband insisted on my trying Wine of Cardui and at last thank God I did try it. Last month I did not have a pain, and did all my work, which I had not done in seven years.

Wine of Cardui

Modesty is the crowning virtue of American women. It is the trait that all mankind admires. A modest woman is the most pleasing of all created things. Because of this becoming virtue thousands of women prefer to suffer untold miseries rather than confide their troubles to a physician, and to even think of submitting to an examination is revolting. They can't get their own consent to an operation. Wine of Cardui permits sensitive women to retain their modesty. With it they can cure "female troubles" in the quiet of their own rooms. If special treatment is required they can write to the Advisory Department of the Chattanooga Medicine Co., and their letters will be promptly answered by women trained in the cure of womanly weaknesses and irregularities. There should be no hesitation. Delayed treatment means a chronic condition. The longer postponed the harder to cure.

BAD BLOOD, BAD COMPLEXION.

The skin is the seat of an almost endless variety of diseases. They are known by various names, but are all due to the same cause, acid and other poisons in the blood that irritate and interfere with the proper action of the skin.

To have a smooth, soft skin, free from all eruptions, the blood must be kept pure and healthy. The many preparations of arsenic and polish and the large number of face powders and lotions generally used in this class of diseases cover up for a short time, but cannot remove permanently the ugly blotches and the red, disfiguring pimples.

Eternal vigilance is the price of a beautiful complexion when such remedies are relied on.

Mr. H. T. Shobe, 2704 Lucas Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., says: "My daughter was afflicted for years with a disfiguring eruption on her face, which resisted all treatment. She was taken to two celebrated health springs, but received no benefit. Many medicines were prescribed, but without result, until we decided to try S. S. S., and by the time the first bottle was finished the eruption began to disappear. A dozen bottles cured her completely and left her skin perfectly smooth. She is now seventeen years old, and not a sign of the embarrassing disease has ever returned."

S. S. S. is a positive, unfailing cure for the worst forms of skin troubles. It is the greatest of all blood purifiers, and the only one guaranteed purely vegetable.

Bad blood makes bad complexions. SSS purifies and invigorates the old and makes new, rich blood that nourishes the skin active and healthy and in proper condition to perform its part towards carrying off the impurities from the body. If you have Eczema, Tetter, Acne, Salt Rheum, Psoriasis, or your skin is rough and pimply, send for our book on Blood and Skin Diseases and write our physicians about your case. No charge whatever for this service. SWIFT SPECIFIC COMPANY, ATLANTA, GA.

WHEN THE SNOWFLAKES FALL.

When the snowflakes fly, when the snowflakes fly, Like palmy little people flutter gay and giddy by. When the jolly sleigh bells jingle, while sleigh-bells prattle, too, And the world in purest ermine seemeth like a world made new, The happy days have come unto the jolly Old Winter's fun makes for them all a jubilee of joys.

The coasting at a lively gallop down steep and glossy hills, The skaters darting, allow-like, o'er frozen lakes and rills, The iceboats gliding gayly over seas of burnished glass, The meetings and the greetings as the merry people pass, The snowballings and battles in the forts of marbled white, The moonlight silvery landscapes into wonderlands at night.

The fringe of icy stalactites along the glistening eaves, The tufts of downy snow which forests wear in lieu of leaves, The snow-crust sparkling brilliantly with countless flashing gems Which dim and dull by contrast boasted royal diadems, The softened light which radiates from mellowed earth and sky, When the earth wears bridal garments and the snowflakes fly.

Huge snowdrifts mounting softly, carved and corniced at the top, Each weed and clump of bushes like a bleached and tufted mop, The rivers singing blithely, prattling gayly as they flow, Sometimes 'neath glassy covers and sometimes beneath the snow, The padded fields and fences wearing purest ermine clothes, The posts which stand out whitely like pale ghosts in sheeted rows.

And then the cozy evenings by the crackling, ruddy fire, Good cheer which glads all faces from the babe to his grandire, The wealth of health bestowed upon the jolly boys and girls With eyes as bright as icicles and teeth like snowy pearls; Gay spirits sparkle also and contented hearts soar high When the earth wears spotless raiment and the snowflakes fly. SATURDAY, APRIL 20.

Here's hoping, to the end that Greensboro may be, not only the fastest growing, but the most grown, town in all this section of the South, that her people may be one in purpose and work, and may set as the mark of their high calling the ever increasing progress of this town in all its moral and material welfare.

Professor Aguinaldo is just a little florid in his remarks.

Harry Skinner, one of the place hunters, and finders, who helped to run the people of this State to the borderland of insanity in his anarchistic harangues, has come out in advocacy of the Republican party in the South, and specifically repudiates free silver, the beauty of which exalted him into a seat in Congress from the first North Carolina District.

GREENSBORO.

As an indication of what Greensboro is doing we offer to our friends today's issue of The Telegram. There has been no effort to make an elaborate and costly edition of the paper. The matter has been gotten up with a view to give information rather than display. It will be noticed that attention has been given to manufacturing, wholesaling, and enterprises other than the mere retail business of the city. Of course any place which can make such a showing along the lines indicated in this paper has an abundance of retail stores and all the kindred enterprises which naturally go with a place of such size. If it had been sought to make a showing of our many retail businesses separately a paper double the size would have been necessary.

With this explanation we invite all strangers who see this to persevere unto a better knowledge of the manufacturing, business, educational and social advantages of Greensboro, the fastest growing city in North Carolina.

MAJ. MOREHEAD'S WORK.

We desire to add to the remarks of our contemporary, Charity and Children, appearing in this issue, regarding the efforts of Maj. Joseph M. Morehead in securing the money for a Colonial Monument at the Guilford Battle Ground. Not only do the people of this town, but those of the entire State, owe him a debt of gratitude for the work he has done in making clear the true history of the overthrow of the British power in America, because to his labors is largely due the fact that North Carolina is beginning to get credit for the advanced position of her people long prior to the time to which the Northern historians have been ascribing the outbreak of the Revolution. Sad to say, most of our own people had fallen into the errors of these so-called historians, and the events that are really the boldest, most advanced, determined, and Revolutionary of the whole country, were practically forgotten, or at best misunderstood. Major Morehead has not only investigated for years and pointed out the facts, but he has capped the climax of his patriotic efforts by erecting a suitable monument to the all-ignored patriots who really began the great American Revolution. The handsome monument which is now being built and which will be unveiled the fourth of July is due solely to his untiring efforts. Of course the people who have contributed to it deserve commendation, and they have it, but to his labors are due the inspiration and success of the magnificent undertaking. Days and nights of planning and toiling he has given the work, and in the name of the people of this city who will be so honored by the erection of this unique and beautiful monument, we now presume to speak, and thank him.

PRIMACY IN INSURANCE.

It is a matter of congratulation that Greensboro, along with her other business enterprises, takes absolute primacy in the insurance business in this State. About eight years ago the Southern Stock Mutual Fire Insurance Company was organized here, which, while other State companies have enjoyed an indifferent patronage, has steadily grown in the confidence of the public until it now practically has all the business it wants. Two other companies have since been organized to do business, and they are also meeting with perfect success. Not only has Greensboro created a new era in fire insurance, but it now goes ahead with the very first life insurance company ever organized on old line principles in this State. From the day it opens its books for business, this new company, "The Security Life and Annuity Company," will, without doubt, score a success, and the second movement looking towards a further keeping of the South's capital at home for Southern development, will have been inaugurated in the insurance business, one of the last, but finest fields, to be embraced by Southern enterprise, brains and capital.

University and Vanderbilt.

Correspondence of The Telegram.
Chapel Hill, April 19.—The second inter-collegiate debate between Vanderbilt University and the University of North Carolina the query: Resolved: That the combination of capital by means of the trust or combine, is an economic and social advantage, was one of the most interesting debates ever heard here. The two Universities were represented by:
University North Carolina—Affirmative, Benj. B. Love, 1899; Wiley H. Swift, 1901.
Vanderbilt—Negative, Thomas R. Rives, 1901; Robert H. Scott, 1901.
The president of the debate was Judge J. C. McRae and the judges were Prof. J. C. Horner, Prof. J. Allen Holt, and Rev. T. D. Baton.
The debate was hotly contested but the committee after about twenty minutes absence decided in favor of the affirmative. The young gentlemen from Tennessee made excellent speeches and it is to be hoped that we will again have another such intellectual treat.

WHEN QUEEN VICTORIA

Ascended the throne many awaited anxiously her first command. It is said by historians to have been "Bring me a cut of tea". Tea is the first thing required after assuming great responsibilities. It is a solace to burden-bearers. Is it any wonder that a woman who reigned sixty years over the most powerful kingdom of the world should know the value of tea. Do you know its value in your daily life? Not its full value, certainly unless you have tried Chase and Sanborn's Original Package teas such as their "Emperors fluid," a pure tea in sealed lead packages. We sell it.

RHEUMATISM | CATARRH - DIS EASES CURED BY B. B. B.

It is the deep-seated, obstinate cases of catarrh and rheumatism that B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) cures. It matters not what other treatments doctors, sprays, liniments, medicated air, blood purifiers, have failed to do, B. B. B. always promptly reaches the real cause and roots out and drives from the bones, joints, mucous membrane, and entire system the specific poison in the blood that causes rheumatism and catarrh. B. B. B. is the only remedy strong enough to do this and cure on so there can never be a return to the symptoms. Don't give up hope, but try B. B. B. (Botanic Blood Balm) or 3 Bs.

For sale by druggists and Howard Gardner, in Greensboro, at $1 per large bottle, or 6 large bottles (full treatment) $5. To prove our faith in B. B. B. we will send a trial bottle free to sufferers, so they may test the remedy at our expense. Address Blood Balm Co., Atlanta, Ga.

"Last winter I was confined to my bed with a very bad cold on the lungs. Nothing gave me relief. Finally my wife bought a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure that effected a speedy cure. I cannot speak too highly of that excellent remedy."—Mr. T. K. Houseman, Manatawney, Pa. Howard Gardner.

W. C. T. U. DEPARTMENT.

The following is an extract from her letter to the Union Signal by our National president, Mrs. L. M. N. Stevens:

"We were warmly welcomed to Greensboro by Mrs. Cartland, the State president, beloved by all, by Mrs. Osborne, Mrs. Ross and others of the local W. C. T. U.

"Easter Sunday in the morning, the West Market Street church (Methodist South) was dedicated, the impressive service being conducted by Bishop Granberry. It is a remarkably handsome edifice, said to accommodate 2,500 people. We hinted to the Greensboro friends that some future year it would be a good place to hold a National Convention, and they smiled not disapprovingly. It was in this church that we spoke on Sunday afternoon to a large audience. The pastor and congregation received us and our ideas with great cordiality.

"We were glad to see at the meeting some of our colored friends, who attended the Washington Convention as delegates from North Carolina Union No 2. We were sorry that we could not arrange to speak for them but hope to do so at some future time.

"At the close of the service we went to the State Normal College, which has about four hundred girl students. The college has the appearance of being well equipped in every way and we have never seen more pleasing young women than those who gathered in the chapel for the W. C. T. U. meeting. One of their own number presided with gracious dignity, and they listened with rapt attention as Miss Gordon talked to them of Miss Willard, Lady Henry Somerset and what young women have done and can do to help the temperance cause. They already had a Somerset Y, but a large number joined at the close of the meeting and we felt in this meeting we had touched lives which are to touch in blessing many hundreds of lives throughout North Carolina.

"The president of the institution is a man, Dr. McIver, but all of the other officers, including the resident physician, are women. Among the portraits in the Chapel we noticed that of Dorothea Dix and one of the teachers explained that the president had that placed there because he had been so impressed by her great influence for good and the fact that she persuaded the North Carolina Legislature to vote $100,000 for the care of the insane when they had but $90,000 in the entire treasury.

"North Carolina is a resourceful state and there are evidences that it is not unmindful of the dependent and unfortunate classes, and that it intends to care for its young women as well as for its young men. That there is a growing tendency to do this in the South as well as elsewhere is gratifying to lovers of equality and justice.

"They told us that plans are under way for an oil portrait of Miss Willard for the college, and requested Miss Gordon to send photographs from which the artist can choose."

It would be a strange thing indeed to find some one we could not please with shoes. Come in and see if you find fault with the style or price of our spring shoes.
